ALL ABOUT ME

I'm a native Oregonian and Tigard High School graduate. I've been married to my wonderful husband, Dave, for 13 years and we have a son, PJ, who is 11. We live in Sherwood with our dog, Malcolm, and 5 cats, Kit, Wubzy, Oliver, Chewy, and Squirrel. I love to read, drink coffee, play video games, go on bike rides with my son, organize closets, and binge watch The West Wing.

MY EDUCATION

I started my career in Early Childhood Education as an assistant and substitute teacher for a preschool in Tualatin. This is my sixth year teaching here at The Playschool. I spent one year with the toddlers, two years in Jr. Preschool, and am now in my third year teaching Pre-K. I'm currently working toward my Child Development Associate credential.
