

MEET THE TEACHER

Jess Delafield

ALL ABOUT ME

Hello, I am Jess the Playschool cook. I live in Troutdale with my husband and two boys 11.5 and 18.5 .

Some of my favorite things to do is baking, hiking, painting, watching movies , playing games with my youngest and spending time with family and friends.

MY EDUCATION

I have been working in the Child Development for 19 years . I have my CDA Certificate and began teaching in 1998 as a Toddler Teacher. Through the years I taught Pre-School, Pre-K and was a substitute cook, and a Nanny for a year. I Am a former employee of the Playschool many years ago as a Toddler Teacher. In 2003 I decided to take a break from teaching and enjoy my boys early childhood years and became a stay at home mom. I got to enjoy volunteering at two schools and coaching baseball.
