

All about me

Hi, my name is Jordan and I am a teacher at The Playschool. I live in Beaverton with my husband, Ryan, and our dog, Koopa. We will be welcoming our first baby in September. I love to travel the world and explore the foodie scene in Portland. I'm addicted to true crime documentaries and podcasts, as well as bubble baths and Peloton bike rides.

Experience

I have been working at The Playschool for 10+ years in several roles, including toddler teacher, junior preschool teacher, and preschool teacher. I recently completed my Master's in Early Childhood Education & Inclusive Education.
